

RESILIENCY FLORIDA

April Characteristic of the Month Toolkit

Each month, Resiliency Florida features one of the 11 key Resiliency Characteristics as the Characteristic of the Month. This month, Resiliency Florida is spotlighting mentorship.

In this toolkit, parents, teachers and school leaders will find a variety of resources to support starting the conversation about mentorship, not only in school, but at home.

To learn about the other key Resiliency Characteristics, visit BuildResiliency.org.

APRIL CHARACTERISTIC OF THE MONTH

 Mentorship Giving or asking for support, guidance, training or expertise.

MATERIALS

PARENT RESOURCES

The Parent Resources are designed for parents and children to have conversations about resiliency at home. Download the Parent Resources for this month's characteristic, mentorship, by clicking the correct grade level below.

 GRADES K-2

GRADES 3-5

 GRADES 6-8

GRADES 9-12

SUBSCRIBE TO THE NEWSLETTER

Parents, teachers and community leaders can subscribe to the Resiliency Florida newsletter via the button below. Arriving at the beginning of each month, the newsletter is filled with a variety of resources to support the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month.

 SUBSCRIBE

BuildResiliency.org

APRIL CLASSROOM POSTER

Resiliency Florida provides teachers with a printable poster for April's Characteristic of the Month, mentorship, which can be displayed in classrooms and media centers.

 POSTER

SAMPLE NEWSLETTER POSTS

School and district leaders can use the visuals and copy below to spread the word about resiliency and the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month.

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

Use the Resiliency Reading List to help start the conversation with your children about the Resiliency Characteristics.

This month's characteristic is mentorship. We are spotlighting the book Rosa Parks by Eloise Greenfield. Use this book to talk to your student about mentorship and ways he or she could serve as a mentor.

 GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

Learning how to ask for help is an important skill for children to learn as they grow older and face challenges in everyday life. Understanding and seeking mentorship can help children as they navigate life.

Visit BuildResiliency.org to find a variety of resources that support parents, grandparents, teachers and community leaders in teaching children about mentorship and the other Resiliency Characteristics.

 GRAPHIC

RESILIENCY FLORIDA

April Characteristic of the Month Toolkit

RESILIENCY
FLORIDA

FAMILY READING GUIDES

The Family Resiliency Reading Guides are resources to continue discussions at home about the books located on the Resiliency Reading List. Each Family Resiliency Reading Guide contains a summary of the book, literacy tips and conversation starters about resiliency. Use the following reading guide to start a conversation about mentorship with your student after reading the book Rosa Parks.

Rosa Parks
by Eloise Greenfield

READING GUIDE

SOCIAL MEDIA POSTS

Download the graphics below to share on social media and help spread the word about the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month.

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

In April, we're focusing on the Resiliency Characteristic of mentorship, which means giving or asking for support, guidance, training or expertise. Mentoring fosters growth and builds resiliency in our students. Download resources to help start the conversation with your kids about the importance of mentorship: BuildResiliency.org

GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

The Resiliency Florida characteristic of the month is mentorship, which means giving or asking for support, guidance, training or expertise.

By guiding our students, we not only help them grow but also strengthen our own skills.

Learn more about mentorship here: BuildResiliency.org

GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

Helping your child understand the importance of mentorship can have positive impacts in the future.

Start the conversation about mentorship today.

Visit BuildResiliency.org!

GRAPHIC

Start the Conversation About
MENTORSHIP
View downloadable resources at BuildResiliency.org

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

Wondering how to talk with your child about the importance of mentorship?

The Resiliency Florida Parent Resources are designed for parents and children to have conversations about mentorship at home.

Discover more at BuildResiliency.org.

GRAPHIC

Discover
Resiliency Florida
Parent Resources

Start the Conversation
About Mentorship Today!
View the Parent Resources for all Resiliency Characteristics at BuildResiliency.org