

RESILIENCY FLORIDA

July Characteristic of the Month Toolkit

Each month, Resiliency Florida features one of the 11 key Resiliency Characteristics as the Characteristic of the Month. This month, Resiliency Florida is spotlighting responsibility.

In this toolkit, parents, teachers and school leaders will find a variety of resources to support starting the conversation about responsibility, not only in school, but at home.

To learn about the other key Resiliency Characteristics, visit BuildResiliency.org.

JULY CHARACTERISTIC OF THE MONTH

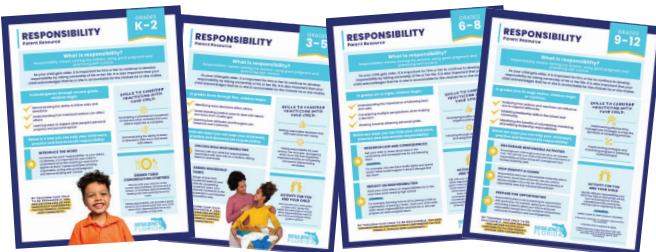

Responsibility Owning my actions, using good judgment and practicing self-control.

MATERIALS

PARENT RESOURCES

The Parent Resources are designed for parents and children to have conversations about resiliency at home. Download the Parent Resources for this month's characteristic, responsibility, by clicking the correct grade level below.

GRADES K-2

GRADES 3-5

GRADES 6-8

GRADES 9-12

SUBSCRIBE TO THE NEWSLETTER

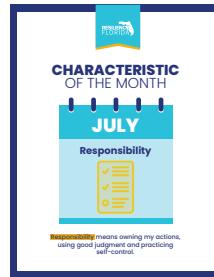

Parents, teachers and community leaders can subscribe to the Resiliency Florida newsletter via the button below. Each month, the newsletter is filled with a variety of resources to support the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month.

SUBSCRIBE

BuildResiliency.org

JULY CLASSROOM POSTER

Resiliency Florida provides teachers with a printable poster for July's Characteristic of the Month, responsibility, which can be displayed in classrooms and media centers.

POSTER

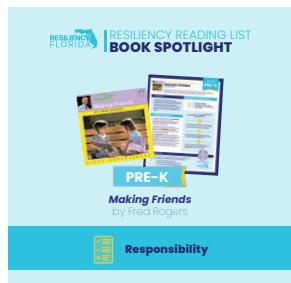

SAMPLE NEWSLETTER POSTS

School and district leaders can use the visuals and copy below to spread the word about resiliency and the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month.

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

The Resiliency Reading List features books that help start the conversation with your children about the Resiliency Characteristics.

This month, our book spotlight is on Making Friends by Fred Rogers. This book highlights the importance of responsibility, the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month!

GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

By practicing responsibility at school and at home, your child will gain a better understanding of owning their actions, using good judgment and practicing self-control.

Visit BuildResiliency.org to find a variety of resources that support parents, grandparents, teachers and community leaders in teaching children about these important characteristics.

GRAPHIC

RESILIENCY FLORIDA

July Characteristic of the Month Toolkit

RESILIENCY
FLORIDA

FAMILY RESILIENCY READING GUIDES

The Family Resiliency Reading Guides are resources to continue discussions at home about the books located on the Resiliency Florida Reading List. Each Family Resiliency Reading Guide contains a summary of the book, literacy tips and conversation starters about resiliency. Use the following reading guides to start a conversation about responsibility with your student after reading Making Friends by Fred Rogers.

PRE-K
Making Friends
by Fred Rogers

READING GUIDE

SOCIAL MEDIA POSTS

Download the graphics below to share on social media and help spread the word about the Resiliency Florida Characteristic of the Month.

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

Responsibility means owning your actions, using good judgment, and practicing self-control.

By teaching your child to be responsible, you are helping him or her positively contribute to the family, school and community.

Learn more at BuildResiliency.org.

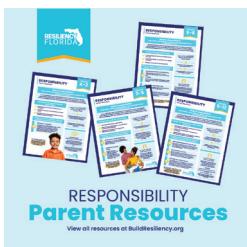

GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

Resiliency Florida assists parents and teachers in building resiliency in children so they can grow into empowered adults!

Demonstrating responsibility is essential when teaching children how to be resilient.

To provide them with foundational guidance that supports their personal growth and development, download Resiliency's Florida Parent Resources by visiting BuildResiliency.org.

GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

Pick up a copy of Making Friends by Fred Rogers from the Resiliency Florida Ready List.

Encourage your pre-kindergarten child to read this with you for a better understanding of what it means to be responsible!

GRAPHIC

SUGGESTED POST TEXT

As children grow, it is essential that they learn responsibility and to take ownership of their actions.

Help them understand the importance of accountability by using Resiliency Florida's Parent Resources to guide you in building your strong, resilient child.

Check out BuildResiliency.org to learn more!

GRAPHIC

Download the Family Resiliency Reading Guide at BuildResiliency.org!